More ...

So to continue with this new part 3, we have 12 new items, and right at the top of this list is "Parabrahma" which sets out the overall scheme of things, and puts Shri Adi Shakti & Sahaja Yoga fairly and squarely in centre stage of the Universe, with the 'Heart of the Universe' here in England, being part of the United Kingdom..

Apologies to all the 'now quite many' newer Sahaja Yogis', who have quite unwittingly taken on board all this misinformation, without realising its proper significance. We will be attempting to rectify the situation with this report.

If we pick up on these errors & rectify them as a matter of some urgency, we stand a good chance of fully recovering the situation, and fully pleasing Shri Mataji.

[They are also shown elsewhere but mainly behind the Main "Index" link in the 'Quick Access Links' bar, then look beneath "RESEARCH" and then also behind the ABC (for newcomers) link & then look towards the top of the page)

It is perhaps best to start off with the 'Quick Access Links' bar that is located near the bottom of the HomePage
