

Residual

As in Residual Energy, which after creating, nonetheless still remains (811004); The basic original energy, which has not gone into division (MME); Residual Power, the Desire within us, is the Adi Shakti... is a part of the Adi Shakti reflected within us... is the Holy Ghost within us... it is the one that creates everything, the whole Brahmanda... and is residual, til you become the Atma. Til the attention goes to the Atma... it is residual... it is sleeping... because it has not yet manifested. It has manifested everything else... except for making you aware of the Atma (0.0012)

Kundalini Is your own mother... means is your individual mother. Is the residual power... and has not yet manifested... and what is this power... is the ultimate Desire to be one with the All Pervading Divine (821007)
