

Yamuna

Also Jamuna (810330); The river that was crossed, when Shri Krishna was carried in a basket by his father to Gokul, in order to save him from the Rakshasa, Khamsa. When the river touched Shri Krishna's Feet, the river went down (810330)

The river where Shri Radha used to take her bath, and used to vibrate the water, and where the Gopis, the ladies, used to go and fill their pitchers, which were then broken by Shri Krishna, as a child... so that the water would fall on their backs (810330)
